SPECIAL CONDITIONS

1. This Schedule shall be available only to regular employees and to retired employees who were retired under SCE's pension plan. This Schedule is not applicable to new, part-time, intermittent, or contract employees, nor to regular employees on leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) days.
2. This Schedule will apply only to the single-family accommodation which is the place of residence of the employee or retiree, where such eligible person is head of the household served (or that person's spouse), or where he or she lives with and constitutes the support of a mother, father, or other immediate family.
3. Service under this Schedule is available only upon written application made by the employee or retiree, and the discount will be discontinued upon termination of eligibility of such person or upon cessation of payment of bills directly by the employee or retiree.
